

News from

THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL

Contact: Abbie Hattauer

516-379-8660

FAX 516-379-8806

87 Pine Street, Freeport, New York 11520-3615

ahattauer49@yahoo.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

5 January 2007

Advent Service – The De La Salle School’s Gift to the Community

Freeport – The entire student enrollment of The De La Salle School slowly processed to the sanctuary of Our Holy Redeemer Church on 20 December to offer their fifth annual Advent Service of Lessons and Carols to the Freeport community. Under the direction of the school’s music and religion teacher, Brother Richard Lalime, FSC; and accompanied by Dave Opatow, Director of the Freeport Memorial Library, the students told the story of Christ’s impending birth in words and music – offering a contemplative and joyous respite from the hectic pre-Christmas preparations.

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. For more information, visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org or call 516-379-8660.

Photo caption: Students from The De La Salle School processing at the start of their 2006 Advent Service at Our Holy Redeemer Church in Freeport.