De La Salle School Class of 2007!

Freeport – (left to right) The De La Salle School celebrated its second Graduation Mass and Commencement Exercise at Our Holy Redeemer Church on Friday, 15 June, 2007. Alxis, Juan, and Cristopher were just three of the thirteen De La Salle Class of 2007 graduates. Every student in this second graduating class has been accepted into at least one Catholic high school.

“This was a joyous celebration,” remarked Brother Thomas P. Casey, FSC, Executive Director of The De La Salle School. “It marked the culmination of years of effort on the part of our students as well as the partnership and cooperation of family, school, and the community. These young men are well prepared for high school and lives of leadership and service.”

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York.
