

News from

THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL

Contact: Abbie Hattauer

516-379-8660

FAX 516-379-8806

87 Pine Street, Freeport, New York 11520-3615

ahattauer49@yahoo.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 31 January 2007

– Photo Caption

De La Salle School Celebrates An International Christmas

Freeport – A delicious international Christmas buffet was served by the eighth graders at The De La Salle School in Freeport to celebrate the many different nationalities of its students and staff. Organized by Mr. Maurice Elvie, science and technology teacher; and Mr. Kevin Rall, mathematics and physical education teacher, the luncheon featured more than three dozen entrees, side dishes, and desserts prepared by parents and staff, representing countries as diverse as Ireland, Jamaica, the Dominican Republic, and Peru. Brother Thomas P. Casey, FSC, Executive Director noted “More than a dozen different countries are represented when we consider the native land of the parents of our fifty-two students. Such a variety made for an experience of multiple cuisines.”

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. For more information visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org or call 516-379-8660.

Photo caption: Freeport resident Tori, and his fellow eighth graders, served home made foods to classmates, staff, and guests at The De La Salle International Christmas Buffet.