The De La Salle School Holds Elections!

Freeport – Elections were held a few weeks early at The De La Salle School, a Freeport middle school for young men...Student Council elections that is. Henry Mena, a seventh grader who resides in Hempstead was chosen President and his brother, Christian, was elected Treasurer. Freeport resident Joshua Arias is both Secretary and sixth grade representative. Other class representatives are Hempstead resident Dennis Abarca (fifth grade), and Freeport residents Jonathan Sabando (seventh grade) and Tori Lundy (eighth grade).

“As leaders of the student body these young men will be making decisions that will impact some positive changes on the school’s population,” commented Mr. Maurice Elvie, Faculty Advisor to the Council and the school’s science and technology teacher. “We wish them all the best as they set out to lead their fellow classmates.”

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York.
