Local Resident Volunteers At The De La Salle School

Freeport – (left to right) Thomas Hessel, Sue Bevilacqua, and Marie Roberts were honored recently as a volunteer tutors at The De La Salle School's Thanksgiving Breakfast and Prayer Service. "Our dedicated tutors provide much needed one-on-one assistance to many of our students," praised Principal Roseann Petruccio. "We are very grateful for their generosity, patience, and hard work. Their support of our educational mission is invaluable"

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. For more information about becoming a volunteer at The De La Salle School, please call 516-379-8660 or visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org.
