De La Salle School Hosts Academic Fair

Freeport -- The De La Salle School, located at 87 Pine Street, Freeport will host its first ever Academic Fair on Sunday afternoon, 4 November, from 2:30 to 4:30 PM in the school's gymnasium. The public is invited to view artistic displays, read creative writing projects, participate in inter-active science projects, take a student-guided school tour, and meet – up close and personal – the “Artists, Writers, Gentlemen of the Week,” and students like James and Joel pictured sharing a quiet moment pondering their next moves.

“Plan on joining us for an hour or so to learn about the unique educational opportunity The De La Salle School provides its students,” commented Executive Director, Brother Thomas P. Casey, FSC. “This is also a perfect time for prospective students and their families to visit the school, take a tour, and speak to our staff.”

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York.
