Main St. Café Plays Host

Patchogue -- The Main St. Café in Patchogue was the site of a recent gathering for friends of the De La Salle School. Hosted by owners Gaspar, Anthony, and Paul DeSimone, this event brought together alumni of the former La Salle Military Academy and provided them with an opportunity to catch up with former teachers and to hear how the Christian Brothers' tradition continues on Long Island at The De La Salle School in Freeport.

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. For more information visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org or call 516-379-8660.
