

News from

THE DE LA SALLE SCHOOL

Contact: Abbie Hattauer

516-379-8660

FAX 516-379-8806

87 Pine Street, Freeport, New York 11520-3615

ahattauer49@yahoo.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 22 March 2008

– Photo Caption

Stations of the Cross

Freeport -- The eighth grade students of The De La Salle School re-enacted the Stations of the Cross during Holy Week at Our Holy Redeemer R.C. Church, Ocean Avenue in Freeport. With Hempstead resident Henry Mena as Jesus and the rest of the class serving as Roman soldiers, Pontius Pilot, narrators, and citizens of Jerusalem, the story of Jesus' suffering came to life. "An atmosphere of reverence permeated the church," noted Dean of Student Life and math teacher, Mr. Kevin Rall. "The eighth graders are role models and set the example for their classmates in fifth, sixth, and seventh grade. The parents, teachers, staff, and other parish worshipers were all caught up in the solemnity of this service and its meaning for all Christians."

Enrollment for young men entering fifth or sixth grade in September of 2008 is currently taking place. To arrange a tour of the school or for more information, please call 516-379-8660 or visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org.

The De La Salle School is a scholarship Catholic school in the Diocese of Rockville Centre that shares in the Lasallian heritage and exists to provide a quality education for young men in fifth through eighth-grade from economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Its curriculum meets and surpasses the guidelines established by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. For more information visit www.DeLaSalleSchool.org or call 516-379-8660.