Tidings From Brother Thomas

Tonight marks another wonderful milestone in our life and mission – thirteen young men will gather with family, friends, teachers, and staff to celebrate their successful completion of eighth grade and their graduation from The De La Salle School. Eight of these students have been with us since fifth grade. All of them have grown and matured in spirit, knowledge, and skills. They have learned the meaning of hard work and seen its rewards. While we send them on their way, our door is always open to them – for academic assistance, spiritual guidance, or just a listening ear.

Congratulations and Godspeed to The De La Salle School - Class of 2007!

Impressions From a Visitor

“From my first meeting with Ricardo outside the school to touring the school with Gentleman Darian, the experience was indeed a moving and uplifting one.” So began Dr. Emily J. Rodgers’ note following a recent visit to The De La Salle School.

Dr. Rodgers is a retired public and private school administrator and current chair of the Sacred Heart Academy Board of Advisors. “You have created a learning environment for these young men that is replete with a living faith, a challenging curriculum, opportunities for assuming leadership, the inculcating of social and Christian values and much, much more . . . I was very impressed with all aspects of your school. You and your faculty are working diligently to buoy the lives of these ten to fourteen year olds so that they may mirror the respect, responsibility, leadership, and service so evident among you all. May God continue to bless you as you advance the growth of the school.”

Catholic Daughters of the Americas Congratulate Art Contest Winners

Four members of Ct. Stella Maris #822 - Mary Lou Anglim, Cathy Cavanagh, Joanne Flaherty, and Carol Pomerico – visited The De La Salle School last week to congratulate and thank our entire eighth grade class for participating in the Catholic Daughters National Art Contest. Juan De La Cruz and Prince and James Barnes received special “Achievement” recognition.
